RE: Case No. 2004-00204 -- CompSouth Emergency Petition for Declaratory Ruling

Dear Ms. O'Donnell:

This letter concerns BellSouth's letter to the Commission dated June 14, 2004. CompSouth generally agrees with the assertions in BellSouth's letter, and agrees that BellSouth's assurances to the Commission during the June 10 teleconference alleviated the need for expedited relief. However, to avoid any misunderstanding, CompSouth wishes to clarify that contrary to what is stated in the first paragraph of BellSouth's letter, CompSouth has not "agreed to withdraw" its petition. Rather, as described in the Commission staff's informal conference memo of June 10, there is no need for emergency action related to BellSouth, but the case should be held in abeyance and continue on the Commission's docket to address issues should the need arise.

Please return one "FILED" stamped copy of this letter in the enclosed envelope.

Sincerely,

Douglas F. Brent
